

How the Cook Islands International Relationship Property Trust can protect and preserve wealth for future generations

4.00pm

Presentation

The Cook Islands International Relationship Property Trust: a practical solution to the profound effect of a relationship breakup

Tine Ponia

Managing Director - Cook Islands & Nevis
Asiaciti Trust

- Purpose
- Requirements
- Key Features

4.10pm

Presentation

The IRPT versus other planning tools

Rebecca Puni

Client Services Director - Cook Islands
Asiaciti Trust

- A new form of responsible planning
- Why a PNA or other form of trust isn't enough

4.20pm

Presentation

Matrimonial property and international divorce: an update on the law

Marcus Dearle

Partner
Miles Preston

- The law in general
- Case studies
- Where does the IRPT fit in?

4.40pm

Panel Discussion

Understand how the Cook Islands International Relationship Property Trust can protect and preserve wealth for future generations

- What is an International Relationship Property Trust (IRPT) and why was it introduced?
- What are the benefits of / who will benefit from an (Cook Island) International Relationship Property Trust (IRPT)?
- What are the key features of an International Relationship Property Trust (IRPT)?

- Is an IRPT regulated?
- Will the settlors and beneficiaries be subject to Cook Islands taxation?
- Are IRPTs subject to strict disclosure / confidentiality laws?
- How does the IRPT differ from other available planning tools?

Moderator

Michael Stanhope
Founder & Chief Executive Officer
Hubbis

Speaker

Tine Ponia
Managing Director - Cook Islands & Nevis
Asiaciti Trust

Rebecca Puni
Client Services Director - Cook Islands
Asiaciti Trust

Cally Ching
Managing Director – Hong Kong
Asiaciti Trust Asia Limited

Marcus Dearle
Partner
Miles Preston

5.00pm

Webinar Ends