

Investing in Growth & Seeking Value in one of Asia's Most Dynamic Economies – Vietnam

15.00pm

The experts will address some of these questions:

- Why and how is Vietnam's economy growing and diversifying so robustly?
- What opportunities are there in the publicly traded equities market?
- Are Vietnam's capital markets maturing and if so, how and at what pace?
- What investment themes and sectors offer the most compelling appeal for international investors?
- How does Vietnam's investment market compare to more advanced neighbours in ASEAN, and also compared to China and India?
- What are the best ways to access the dynamic investment opportunities on offer?
