Investment opportunities and challenges for 1H 2021

- What's the advice your giving to clients as we enter a new year?
- What are the biggest risks and opportunities for investors in 2021?
- Is this really the right time to be bullish on global equities?
- Where will you find value? What will you avoid?
- Where will the best prospects be in a post-pandemic world?
- Is inflation likely to increase?
- How quickly will global economies and GDP snap back?
- Do you see any increased role of digital assets in your client portfolios?
- China seems to offer some great opportunities – how can you best position clients?
- What will go into the mix? What funds, alternatives or ETFs will you be recommending?
- What about digital assets, do they fit in your clients' portfolios?
