Residency & Citizenship for Private Clients – Key Trends, Key Alternatives and Key Decisions

- What are the key global mobility and investment migration trends have emerged in the past year?
- Where is the demand emanating from these days, and how does that compare with historical trends?
- Is Asia a source of outward activity, or inward activity, or both? Why?
- Within Asia Pacific, which countries are the source of the greatest and growing client demand, and why?
- Within Asia Pacific, which countries are the targets of the greatest and growing client demand from outside the region, and why? What are the retirement options in Asia?
- Which countries are starting new programmes? Which countries have stopped programmes?
- How does the wealth management industry work with the investment migration industry, and what are the commercial or other advantages of doing so?
- How and where does investment migration align with estate and legacy planning?
- Investment migration is not so simple, so what must you do to make the right decisions and then achieve the desired results?
