The ins and outs of Will writing

- What exactly is a Will, and does it differ in different jurisdictions?
- What are the key components of a Will, and what are the essential elements that must be considered and included?
- How does the Will relate to other estate and business legacy planning structures that wealthy private clients might have in place?
- Do HNW and UHNW clients with assets dotted around the world need just one Will or will they need multiple Wills?
- What are some of the risks of preparing Wills badly, or worse, neglecting to do so entirely?
- How does tax – both in the main domicile and in the locations of overseas assets – factor into the writing of Wills?
- Who are the right Executors?
- What exactly is probate and how long does it take, and who should handle it all?
- How do Wills also encompass the challenges of the new world of cryptocurrencies and digital assets?
- Which professionals should be involved in the Will preparation?
- How to safely store the Will and what are the pitfalls of not planning this properly?
