The Rich and Tax – Pressure is Mounting to Replenish State Coffers Across the Globe

- In broad-brush terms, what sort of pressure are government finances under in Asia and from which segments of their economies and societies are they likely to source additional tax revenues?
- What is the likelihood of the wealthier being the key targets for the higher tax revenues in the foreseeable future, and why?
- Will we likely see estate/wealth taxes in any of the leading economies, such as China, Hong Kong, Singapore, Indonesia and others?
- Will inheritance tax finally emerge or return across Asia? Why? Where?
- Are we likely to see new tax amnesties aimed at inducing wealth repatriation in the region, for example, in China?
- What does all this mean for wealth, estate and legacy planning & structuring for Asia's private clients?
- Who do they turn to for advice and solutions?
- What sort of conversations should advisors have with their clients around these issues?
